

CONTEXT

The site is situated in an industrial area just outside the center of Copenhagen, and which is being actively repropose for recreational and residential developments.

Within minutes from the site it is possible to engage in physically challenging sports such as cable skiing, go-car, sailing, and rock climbing.

We propose to expand the mountain activities to the green "valley" next to Amager Ressource Center.