

2. Smoke ejection begins

The storage chamber is full and the piston is at its highest level.

The upper gate opens and the lower gate closes.

The piston starts moving downwards to push smoke out.

The pressure compensation chamber is ready to expand again.