

High Security

Public Sector

Security Concept

For maximum security, the masterplan is organised in layers of securing the Class A production plant with a variety of buffer zones surrounding it in the site center and keeping public and supporting facilities around the site perimeter